Additions and Notes for the Use of American Students. By Simeon Greenleaf, LL. D.

"No work which has appeared for a long time will be more valuable to students or to the profession generally."—Law Reporter.

"Mr. Greenleaf's part in the work is not merely well, it is admirably, done. His notes are full of learning, carefully considered, and of most commendable brevity. He has had no ambition to magnify his office. He has not encumbered his pages with a showy display of cheap learning, nor imposed upon the profession the necessity of purchasing a mass of speculative discussion, of no practical utility.

The whole work, edited throughout as the first two volumes have been, will be one of the most valuable gifts ever bestowed upon the legal profession, and will add essentially to Mr. Greenleaf's already extended reputation."—North American Review.

Goods and Passengers by Land and Water. By Joseph K. Angell.

"His work will be valuable to every practising lawyer in the country, and ought to have a place in every library. We are happy to learn that it has been thus far well received, and we have no doubt that experience will vindicate the correctness of these first impressions."—Law Reporter.

"It is a monument of industry, learning and research, which will prove of great utility in the practice of law and in the business of life, and, we think, cannot fail to add to the well-carned fame which Mr. Angell has already acquired as a lawyer and writer on many important and interesting subjects connected with his profession."

Dr. Martin's Syrup of Wild Cherry and Sar-

THE WILD CHEBRY AND SARSAPARILLA, THE WILD CHERRY AND SARSAPARILLA, which, on the basis of this preparation, have long been celebrated in Consumption and Scrofula, Diseases of the skin, Coughs, Colds, Spitting of Blood, Asthma, &c. Though this remedy has been but a short time before the public, yet it has gained perhaps more character and reputation as a curative in those diseases than any remedy of the day. The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, (the Right Rev. W. R. Whittingham.) authorized us to say he has used it in his own person with decided benefit—Dr. S. Harper, of Kent Island, has written to us, he has used it with great success in his practice [see his letter in the pamphlet.] And in a letter from a lady on the Eastern Shore of this State, she says: "I had a letter from Miss E—on Tuesday; she says mother has requested her to say, Isabel derived almost instantaneous relief from DR MARTIN'S SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY. Her disease was Consumption in its forming stage. DR. MARTIN'S SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY. Her disease was Consumption in its forming stage. The Boonsborough Odd Fellow, of Washington county, Maryland, June 20th, 1848, says: "When an article has afforded relief to so many persons as DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY has done, we feel bound to make it knewn. There never was an article in this country that has afforded relief and gave more satisfaction than this. In the neighborhood of Brownsville, in this county, it has effected several important cures, and, from our own certain knowledge of it, we pronounce it unequalled for the cure of Coughs, Colds, and diseases of this kind."

we pronounce it unequalled for the cure of Coughs, Colds, and diseases of this kind."

MARTIN AND WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC.

A certain cure for Ague, Fever and Dyspepsia.—In our summer and fall months many sections of our country are prostrated by BILIOUS FEVER, and AGUE and FEVER. It has been our particular study to find out some remedy to stop this direadful scourge, and think in this TONIC we have effected this great object. It is also, we think, the very best remedy in Dyspepsia, and, if our directions are followed, will not fail to effect a cure. In a letter dated May 23, 1849, our Agent, Mr. Elias Raub, of Wrightsville, York county, Penn., says: I have never known any remedy for Fever and Ague equal to your INVALUABLE NATION. AL TONIC. It has given universal satisfaction, and has cured cases of Ague of years' standing, and after the failure of all other medicines made use of. Mr. Henry Beverson, of the same place, says in his certificate dated 22d March, 1849: "I applied to a number of physicians, and also used a variety of the most popular Ague Mixtures at different times, but all without the desired effect, no permanent cure having been effected. I was at length induced, at the recommendation of your worthy agent at this piace, to try a bottle of your NATIONAL TONIC, and to my great satisfaction, sefore I had used half of it, I felt completely cured, though I continued the use of it till I had taken two bot tles." In a joint certificate from Messrs. Miles Kaho, William Blackson, and James D. Brown, of the same place, they say: "Having tried nearly all the remedies within our reach without success, we at last purchased some of your NATIONAL TON-IC, which has completely cured us. We cheerfully recommend it to the notice of all persons afflicted with that terrible disease as the best remedy yet discovered."

healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope, that by "winnowing the wheat from the chaff," by roviding abundantly for the imagination, and by a large collection of Biography, Voyages and Travels, History, and more solid matter, we may produce a work which shall be popular, while at the same time it will aspire to raise the standard of public taste.

13-Letters in commendation of the plan and execution of the work from Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, Dr. Bethune, and Messrs. Jared Sparks, W. H. Prescott, George Bancroft, and George Ticknor, have been published in former advertisements. TO all who are afflicted with Rheumatic com-plaints we would say, go and try DR. EMER-SON'S SULPHUR FUME BATHS, at Copp's Pavilion, on Louisiana avenue, near Sixth street. The pe-culiarities of it are such that it cures effectually this complaint. It is our determination to make the Law Library the cheapest series of reprints of English Law publications in the country. The Editorial Department will, we trust, be found fully to realize the expectations of those who have enjoyed Smith's Mercantile Law, Smith's Leading Cases, Sugden on Powers, Sheppard's Touchstone, Broom's Legal Maxims, Archbold's Nisi Prius, Archbold's Landlord and Tenant, Crabb on Real Property, Smith on Contracts. THIS work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's Museum of Foreign Literature, (which was favorably received by the public for twenty years,) but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, we not only give spirit and freshness to it by many things which were excluded by a month's delay, but while thus extending our scope, and gathering a greater and more attractive variety, are able so to increase the solid and substantial part of our literary, historical, and political harvest, as fully to

The high reputation which "The Law Library" has acquired throughout the United States, by the character of its volumes, and by the cheap rate at which its valuable contents have been presented to the profession, is the best evidence we can make of its merits and its claims for your support. We hope, and will aim, to retain this high character.

erary, historical, and political harvest, as fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and stately Essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to Literature, History, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenseum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers's admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Punch; and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia, and Africa into our neighborhood, and will greatly multiply our connexions as merchants, travellers, and politicians, with all parts of the world; so that, much more than ever, it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the conditions and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connexion with ourselves, but because the nations seem to be hastening through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet cannot compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Coloni-ing through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet cannot compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Colonization, (which is extending over the whole world,) and Voyages and Travels, will be favorite matter for our selections; and in general, we shall systematically and very fully acquaint our readers with the great department of foreign affairs, without entirely neglecting our own.

While we aspire to make the Living Age desirable to all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement—to statesmen, divines, lawyers, and physicians—to men of business and men of leisure,—it is still a stronger object to make it attractive to their wives and children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation, and hope to make the work indispensable in every well-informed family. We say indispensable, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad in taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope, that by "winnowing the wheat from the chaff," by; roviding abundantly for the imagination, and hy a large collection of Biography.

PROPOSALS BY LITTLE & BROWN

PROPOSALS BY LITTLE & BROWN
THE LIFE AND WORKS OF JOHN ADAMS,
Second President of the United States.

EDITED BY HIS GRANDSON, CHARLES PRANCIS ADAMS.
THE public will be glad to lown that the publication of the works of John Adams, so long delayed, will now be commenced so soon as an adequate subscription shall have been obtained. It is intended to embrace in the proposed collection the works of Mr. Adams on Government, already published, but now out of print, and a selection from a most voluminous mass of manuscripts which have never seen the light.

The collection is to be made and edited by the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, the depositary of all the manuscripts as well of John Adams as of his father the late John Quincy Adams, and is intended as the first of two great publications, elucidating the history of the rise and progress of these United States, from the year 1761, in which the revolutionary struggle first began, down to the year 1848, when the younger Adams died.

The materials for the first of the two works are much more ample than has generally been supposed. John Adams, during nearly all his life, acrupulously preserved his papers, and among them are found many of a curious and singularly interesting character. Probably the most remark able, at least in the eyes of the world, will prove to be a Diary, commenced by him as early as 1755, and carried on for thirty years, including the largest portion of his public career. This Diary will be found to contain a great amount of valuable matter connected with the early movements of the Revolution in Massachusetts, and to throw a good deal of new light upon the proceedings of the great Congresses of 1774, 1775, and 1776, at Philadelphia, in which the writer was a conspicuous actor. There are also notes of the debates during a portion of that period, which, in the dearth of all knowledge of them, will be highly valuable to posterity.

It is well known that an intention was long entertained by the younger Mr. Adams to write a memoir of his father. This, althou of John Adams himself, which will be woven into the body of his work.

The great difficulty will be in the abundance of the materials to be gathered out of a correspondence carried on for a half a century, as well as out of unpublished treatises of various kinds, rather to bring them all within reasonable limits for purchasers, than to come short of what will interest the students of the national history.

It is proposed to issue the work in ten octavo volumes. These will include the Essay on the Canon and Feudal Laws, the Defence of the American Constitution, the various editions of which have been long since exhausted, and the Discourses on Davila; to all of which illustrations, drawn from the unpublished writings of Mr. Adams, or supplied by the editor from other sources, will be added.

Such selections will be made from the Diary, and Such selections will be made from the Diary, and from the private papers, as may be considered most likely to promote a better acquaintance with the times in which Mr. Adams lived and acted than is yet possessed, even after all the valuable contributions which have already been furnished from other quarters. On the whole, the publishers confidently believe that there is no work relating to the revolutionary history of the United States, and indeed of the times in which Mr. Adams lived, that surpasses in historical and political value the volumes now offered to the patronage of the American people. And they strongly hope that they shall find themselves so well sustained in this great enterprise as to be encouraged to go on and perfect the other and latter part of it, the Life and Works of the no less distinguished son, John Quincy Adams.

The works will be brought out from time to time, commencing during the autumn of 1849, and completed within a reasonable period, consistently with proper attention to the high character designed to be given to them, and in the following order:

1. Works upon Government.

2. Political papers, including Controversial Publications of the Revolution.

3. Messaces and Public Papers.

Messages and Public Papers.

Messages and Public Papers.
 Diary.
 Private Letters on Public Subjects, 1774 to 1801.
 Private Letters from 1756 to 1826.
 Life, by John Quincy Adams, continued by the editor.
 Original unpublished Letters of Franklin, Jay, Jefferson, the Lees, Laurens, Gerry, Dana, Izard, and other eminent patriots of the Revolution.

Dana, Izard, and other eminent patriots of the Revolution.

The work will be beautifully printed, in ten volumes, in the octavo form, each volume containing from 500 to 600 pages, and put up in cloth, at the price of $2 25 a volume.

A limited number of copies will be struck off on large paper, and put up in the same style of binding, price $3 a volume.

Subscriptions and orders are respectfully solicited by the proprietors.

STATIONERY, PRINTING, AND BINDIN

NAVY DEPARTMENT, May 24, 1850.

SEPARATE SEALED PROPOSALS will be recived at the office of the Secretary of the Navy until 3 o'clock, p. m., of Thursday, the 27th of June next, for furnishing all the Stationery and executing all the Printing and Binding that may be required by the Navy Department and its several Bureaus, for the year commencing the lat of July, 1850, and ending on the 30th of June, 1851.

All the articles furnished and work executed must be of the best quality, delivered without delay, when ordered, and to the satisfaction of the head of the office for which they are required.

If it be required, each bidder for Stationery must furnish with his proposal a sample of each article bid for.

To ensure uniformity in the proposals, blank forms will be furnished to those disposed to bid; and no bid will be considered which does not fully conform to the advertisement, and in which more than one price is named for any one article.

Bonds in sufficient amount, with two or more approved sureties for the faithful execution of the contract, will be required of the person or persons contracting. The authorized names of the sureties that will be given, as also satisfactory testimonial to fulfil the contract, must accompany the bid; otherwise it will not be considered.

The Department reserves to itself the right of ordering a greater or less quantity of each and every article contracted for, as the public service may require.

Should any article be required, not enumerated
